Longarm Master Class: Quilting with rulers on your frame

This class will cover all the tips & tricks to successful ruler work on your longarm machine. Learn how to handle the rulers, speed, regulation mode, fudge designs and more! You will get the opportunity to have "hands on" to try out different rulers at this class to see what you like.

Thursday July 27th

10.00 am - 12.00 noon

COST: $39.00 with booking

Free Motion Quilting: Design Sampler (for domestic machines)

Do you love the idea of free motion quilting but have been put off by unsuccessful attempts? Have you been trying to learn on your own? Maybe you are looking just to fine tune your skills? Don't give up, let Heather guide you to success. She has a real knack for explaining the process and giving her students the confidence that they need to achieve this type of quilting - Free motion quilting is the most liberating way to quilt your quilt tops! Once you have mastered the basics there will be no stopping you.

This class will cover everything you need to succeed including correctly setting up your machine, speed vs movement, hand position, understanding tensions, to mark or not to mark, how battings impact on your stitching, what is the most appropriate threads & needles to use plus plenty of tips on creating and stitching fabulous fill designs.

Friday July 28th

10.00 am - 2.00 pm

Free Motion Quilting: Quilting with rulers (for domestic machines)

Join Heather as she teaches you how to quilt with rulers on your domestic machine to enhance and build on your quilting design library! Since the dawn of time longarm quilters have used quilting rulers on their machines to enhance their designs. Domestic machines have started to adapt this method of quilting by now having "ruler" feet available to the domestic machine market. Quilting with rulers involves stitching up against a shaped quilting ruler (not a patchwork ruler), this class will teach you how to get started with rulers, how to handle & control your rulers and what designs you can achieve to make your FMQ a breeze. If you have struggled with free motion quilting (FMQ) rulers may just be the tool you have been looking for!

Thursday 31st August
10.00 am - 2.00 pm
COST: $49 payable with booking + supplies

Slow & Steady Quilt Along - Quilting the quilt demonstration

For those ladies that took part in the Slow & Steady Quilt Along online with Paula Storm but have yet to get quilting, this demonstration based class is for you! Heather will have the original quilt she quilted for Paula plus the top that she has made herself and will be giving quilting design advice and tips on complementing and enhancing your quilt top with the right style of quilting that suits your ability.

Thursday 7th September
